

Information for the Temple Studies Conference, Passion and Passover,
March 31, 2015, at USU's Caine Performance Hall, Logan, Utah.

Parking:

Recommended parking is directly north of the football stadium and south of the softball field on 800 East. It will cost $5.00 to park in this lot. A free SHUTTLE will be provided between this lot and the Performance Hall. (before event, during lunch, and after event only)

For those who select "All Day Parking" (on the registration form) a parking pass will be emailed to you to print out and put on your vehicle dash.

See the attached map below.

Lunch:

On your own! You are welcome to stay on campus and eat at the USU dining locations. Click here to see options: <http://www.usu.edu/dining/>
You are free to leave campus and eat at other local locations. The SHUTTLE will be provided to transport back and forth from the Performance Hall and stadium/softball field parking area only.

Schedule:

Registration is free. The event begins at 8:45. Please arrive between 8:15 and 8:40.

Jesus and Temple: Passion and Passover

8:45 Welcome, Philip Barlow (Utah State University)

9:00 James H. Charlesworth (Princeton University), "Passion and Passover: Devotion and Worship in the Temple that Jesus Knew"

9:50-10:10 Panel Discussion and Audience Questions

10:10-10:25 Break

10:25-11:10 Dan Bahat (University of St. Michael's College, Toronto), "Experiencing the Temple at Passover"

11:10-11:30 Panel Responses and Audience Questions

Lunch break

1:00-1:45 Gary Rendsburg (Rutgers University), "The Psalms as Hymns in the Jerusalem Temple—at Passover and throughout the Year"

1:45-2:00 Audience Questions

2:00-2:45 George Zervos (University of North Carolina, Wilmington), "New Light on an Early Jewish-Christian Temple Source"

2:45-3:00 Audience Questions

3:00-4:00 Concluding Comments by James H. Charlesworth, Panel Responses and Audience Questions

Recommended Reading:

All of the speakers have contributed to the book Jesus and Temple: Textual and Archeological Explorations, edited by James Charlesworth. We recommend reading the book before the conference in order to make the most of this opportunity to learn from these scholars. It is available on Amazon.

